THE SENIOR MESSAGE

by Gary Phillips

The bells still go on ringing,
But they call to us no more;
For we have left our shelter,
And time has barred the door.

How swift the stream has been
With rapids at the last;
Won't you linger just a minute,
But, no, they rush on past.

We say that we are happy;
We shout that we are glad,
But we have never known
That we could be so sad.

We advance a trembling smile,
And laugh at those that cry;
But deep down in our hearts,
We cannot live a lie.

But these long, long steps we're taking
Are not across a stage;
Why, we're just stepping back
So time can turn the page.

So, enjoy it while you can,
You Juniors and the rest;
For these short years at MARS HILL HIGH
Are your very very best.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Hazel Suttles

To one who has been a personal counselor to each of us throughout our last four years; one who helped us through these years, which at times seemed so impossible; one who encouraged us to succeed and stood by us when we were unsuccessful; and one who has been faithful to our school and community; we, the Senior Class of 1966, say "Thank You" to MRS. HAZEL SUTTLES.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Fred Dickerson, Principal

"This annual will serve for many as a memento of one of life's most interesting and critical periods. The existence of this significant link with the past will serve, too, as a tribute to those who have expended much time and effort to the end that the future will be more meaningful and fruitful."

Dear old Mars Hill High.
